

Are you an “N” Christian?

In northern Iraq, radical Muslims (ISIS) spray-painted the Arabic letter ن, or “N,” on the homes and businesses of Christians. The believers were publicly identified as Christ-followers and given a choice to convert to Islam, leave or die. The courageous believers refused to deny their faith. More than 100,000 fled with little more than the clothing on their backs. Today you can stand with them by making the following commitment:

*“I will not let them suffer in silence.
I will not let them serve alone.”*

On _____, our youth group will be holding an Exile Night. This special event will allow students to experience a little of what our exiled brothers and sisters face every day. They will eat what they eat and sleep how they sleep, gaining a better understanding of the price persecuted believers pay for remaining faithful to Christ.

Please speak to _____ if you have any questions about Exile Night. You can also visit i-am-n.com to learn more about persecution in the Middle East.
